

COWI CREW

Job Description

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

- Be a servant-leader
- Embrace the role of being the hands and feet at camp for the campers
- Accept responsibility for the jobs that help camp run effectively for all campers & staffers
- Uphold integrity, especially when not directly supervised
- Must be 18 years of age or older
- Work 2 or more camps.
- Willingness to be Lifeguard trained or trained for other specialized certifications

CHAIN OF COMMUNICATION

- Report to the Cowi Crew Coordinator or Director of Camping if no CCC
- Maintain uplifting rapport with other staff (Ephesians 4:29)

PRE-CAMP RESPONSIBILITIES

- Complete the staff application and turn in Youth Protection Training, W9 forms, and any other needed paperwork PRIOR to coming to camp.
- Prepare yourself spiritually, mentally, and physically prior to coming out to camp
- Attend necessary trainings
- Arrive at camp no later than 4pm on Staff arrival day o (If arriving later prior arrangements need to be made with Director of Camping)
- Lead any cleaning & sanitizing procedures necessary prior to Camper Arrival

CAMP RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend and participate in Staff Morning Devos
- Be prepared to welcome and assist campers at camper check in
- Help Kitchen Crew with serving meals & cleaning dishes
- Prep Waterfront area & equipment daily or between each swimming group
- Oversee SWAT & Waterfront activities such as Archery, BB Guns, Slingshots, Arts & Crafts, etc.
- If lifeguarding, ensure campers & staff follow Waterfront rules to keep everyone safe
- Assist with activity prep and set up for Golgotha, Coffee House, Dance Parties
- Maintain "I am Third"* attitude as you serve in whatever additional capacities or tasks are assigned by CCC & DOC *God 1st, Others 2nd, Yourself 3rd
- Pursue excellence in everything you do

POST-CAMP RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist with breakdown of camp by leading the cleaning & sanitizing efforts
- Take inventory of all necessary cleaning & sanitizing supplies
- Report to DOC on supplies and any that need refilling

* If you fail to perform assigned jobs, skip devo's, and/or break any camp rules, we reserve the right to require you to leave the camp grounds ****