

SPEAKER

Job Description

EXPECTATIONS

- Previous speaking experience.
- Extensive knowledge of the Gospel.
- Be used by the Lord to convey the Truth to campers through words, actions and visuals.
- Detailed and Organized

CHAIN OF COMMUNICATION

- Report to the Program Director.
- Collaborate with the Program and Worship Leader regarding Chalk Talk needs (slides, scripture, special music, technology needs)

PRE-CAMP RESPONSIBILITIES

- Complete and turn in Youth Protection Training & W9 form to Hospitality Director before the first week of camp you are working.
- Prepare chalk talks (20 min) with the following information/progression/thoughts in mind for greatest impact:
 - Day 1: Creation / Fall
 - Day 2: God's Plan - Jesus as Son of God
 - Day 3: Our Need For Christ / Brokenness of Our World
 - Day 4: Cross / Resurrection (Golgatha Run Day)
 - Day 5: Morning Wrap-Up / So now what?
- The speaker should operate with the idea that there are kids at camp that have never heard of God. Our most important goal is share Jesus and what He has done for them (Gospel)
- The speaker should also recognize there are campers in the crowd that may have heard this message. We should aim to further their understanding and prepare/offer challenges for those who may already be walking with Jesus.

- Understand there is a wide age range of students at this camp to make sure everything is appropriate for all ages. (8-15)
- Provide an outline and cabin questions for each talk prior to camp - 2 weeks before camp.
- Be available for necessary staff training.
- Prepare yourself spiritually, mentally, and physically prior to coming out to camp.
- Meet with Program Director and Camp Director
- Familiarize yourself with the schedule to understand when, where, and what you will need to be doing at what time. This includes additional times of speaking or other activities at camp.

CAMP RESPONSIBILITIES

- Have a Devotional ready for Staff Devo in the morning times.
- Communicate with Program Director and TLCs if you want kids to read certain Scriptures during NUEYO (morning Quiet Time)
- Be visible throughout the day's activities so campers can see you and get to know you (ie. Game activities "SWIFT", sports training "SWISS", eat with campers, etc.) More familiarity = more effectiveness.
- Meet with Program Director and Worship Team for Sound Check before each Chalk Talk
- Communicate to Tribal Leader Coordinator any specifics and questions you would like to see happen during cabin time after Chalk Talk
- Be present during War Room to hear how kids are responding and answer any questions during NUEYO or Cabin Time.
- Be available and willing to serve in areas of need during camp (ie. Being Present)

POST-CAMP RESPONSIBILITIES

- Gather and pack up all equipment
- Turn in Folder to Hospitality Director
- Help with camp clean up
- Complete Staff Evaluation
